

Excelsior Primary School

An Independent Public School

Welcome back to school for what is shaping up to be a very busy Term 2.

First of all, we apologise for the incorrect term date on our website, the correct dates are now posted. We use CONNECT as a more direct means to communicate to parents. Please take the time to log in to CONNECT so we can keep you up to date with activities and events happening in our school. CONNECT has the most up to date information for parents.

If you have any problems accessing CONNECT please let the office know.

Sonshine FM

Sonshine fm presents The Brekky Show with Kirste and Morro. They will be broadcasting The Breakfast Show live from Excelsior Primary School on Friday 4 May. There will be a coffee van providing free morning coffee to mums and dads and warm milo and fruit platters will be available for the students who choose to come to school early to enjoy the games and radio interviews.

Everyone is invited to join in from 7.45am Friday 4 May! - No earlier please!

Mothers Day Stall

Thursday 10 May 8.15am

The councillors will have a stall in the library before school if students wish to purchase a gift for Mother's Day.

All gifts are $5 each.

Pre-order forms have been given to Kindy and Pre Primary students only.

Busy Bee

Save the date!

We are having a Busy Bee at Excelsior to help with the set up of our Kitchen Garden.

Sunday 20 May 10am-2pm

We would appreciate any help available.

New Winter Canteen Menu

Please find our new Winter menu for Excelsior Lunch Box Canteen and our 4 May specials attached for you to print out.

Voluntary Contributions

Reminder of unpaid billing items letters have been sent home to parents today, This financial support plays a significant role in enabling the provision of resources to add value to the learning experiences for all students at Excelsior Primary. We strongly encourage parents to pay this valuable contribution to the school.
